

Susan W. Troppmann has been practicing law in Spokane for over 17 years. Her civil litigation practice covers a wide variety of cases, including jury and bench trials, and arguments before the Court of Appeals and Washington Supreme Court. Susan is a past-president of the Spokane County Bar Association and co-chair of the Diversity Section. She graduated magna cum laude from Gonzaga Law School, has a BA from Bowdoin College and an MBA from the University of Denver. Susan is a candidate for the Court of Appeals, Division III position, and asks for your support.