PRESIDENT'S LETTER

By Scott A. Morris
SCBA President

SCBA SPRING SOCIAL April 5, 2012 The Spokane Club

Here is a recent (and all too familiar) email exchange between your President and SCBA Assistant Executive Director:

Mark Wardrop: Do you have your President's Letter done for the next Calendar Call?

Scott Morris: No. When is it due?

Mark: Yesterday.

Scott: #@%*[Oops]. Got any ideas for me?

Mark: You could write about our upcoming SCBA Spring Social event.

Scott: Good idea. Can you remind me of the details (when, where, how much, etc.)?

Mark: Thursday, April 5th from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm at the Spokane Club. It will be a no-host social with hosted appetizers. There is no cost to attend!!! Our members do not even need to pre-register, they just need to show up and enjoy some time with their colleagues.

Scott: Anything else? That hardly seems like enough for a full President's Letter.

Mark: You could let everyone know that the Board planned this social event, instead of our monthly bar lunch, to enhance the camaraderie of our members. The key will just be finding some way to get people to actually read your column and to encourage them to attend. Get creative.

Scott: OK, I will think of something. Thanks!
