An Introduction to Collaborative Law

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

DENA P. ALLEN is a partner at Allen|Fischer PLLC in Spokane, Washington, where she practices in the areas of family law and estate planning/guardianship/probate. She has twenty-six years of experience practicing law and previously served as an adjunct instructor for the Spokane Community College Paralegal Program teaching domestic relations and wills, trust and probate from 2008-2016. Ms. Allen was also a contributing author to the Handbook For Washington Seniors: Legal Rights and Resources (1st ed. 2012). As a member of both the Spokane County Bar Association and the Washington State Bar Association, Ms. Allen earned her B.A. degree from UCLA and her J.D. degree from Gonzaga University School of Law.

DAVID LOHMAN has practiced a wide variety of law centered on family law since being admitted to the Idaho State Bar in 1985. David first learned about Collaborative Law when he attended joint meeting of the American Bar Association and the American Psychological Association where he heard Pauline Tesler describe the early days of Collaborative Practice in California. When Collaborative Law reached Spokane County, David was there waiting and since obtained a Washington license just to practice Collaborative Law. David limits his Washington practice to Collaborative Law. David's outside interests include residential construction, cooking, cross-country skiing and mountain biking.

GLENN E. TANNER practices primarily family law, centered in Spokane. He is a 1990 cum laude graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School. Glenn did a wide variety of legal work for 4 years as an associate in the largest firm in Kitsap County, Washington, prior to going solo in 1995. Glenn participated in Spokane's first formal Collaborative Law case in 2006 and has been a leader in Collaborative Law since 2004. Glenn helps conduct Collaborative Law meetings from his historic home on the lower South Hill. When not working, he is often running his weimeraners or riding one of his 200 vintage bicycles.
