

Andrew Van Winkle
Senior Staff Attorney
Washington State Court of Appeals, Division III

Andrew is the Senior Staff Attorney for the Washington State Court of Appeals in Spokane, and a former law clerk to the Honorable Kevin M. Korsmo. Prior to returning to the Court of Appeals, Andrew served five years as a deputy prosecutor for Chelan County where he tried everything from infractions through homicide. He has briefed and argued appeals in the Divisions I and III of the Washington State Court of Appeals and the Washington State Supreme Court. As a staff attorney, Andrew devotes most of his time to personal restraint petitions, and coordinates the court's in-house law clerk training. He is a graduate of Shadle Park High School and Spokane Falls Community College. Go Highlanders!
